A Liſt of uſeful and entertaining Books printed for and ſold by J. COOKE, in Pater-noſter Row; which alſo may be had of the perſon who ſells this book.

I.

(Price one ſhilling and ſix-pence)

Adorned with a moſt beautiful frontiſpiece finely engraved from an original drawing taken from life,

The BOOK of FATE,

OR,

UNIVERSAL FORTUNE-TELLER.

CONTAINING

I. The arts of fortune-telling, conjuring, and juggling, in all their branches. II. The method of throwing cups and balls, eating fire, and other curious feats of legerdemain. III. A true interpretation of all kinds of dreams, digeſted into Alphabetical order. IV. The art of palmeſtry, or prognoſtication by the lines of the hand.

To which is added, an entire new and extraordinary method of telling fortunes by cards and dice; with many particulars never before publiſhed.

By WILLIAM PARTRIDGE, Doctor of Aſtrology.

 Be careful to aſk for the Book of Fate, printed for J. COOKE, all others being ſpurious and an impoſition on the public.—As this book is entered in the hall book of the company of Stationers, whoever pirates the whole or any part of it will be proſecuted as the law directs.

Here you may read with great ſurprize,
Of myſteries hid from vulgar eyes;
Of wond'rous deeds by magic wrought,
Exceeding all belief or thought;
Yet is this art ſo well explain'd,
That all our magic may be gain'd;
And every matter clearly known,
Your neighbour's fortune—or your own.

II.

In a handſome pocket Volume, Price Two Shillings and Six-pence neatly bound.

The Complete ENGLISH Brewer:

Or the Whole

Art and Myſtery of BREWING,

In all its various BRANCHES;

Containing plain and eaſy directions for Brewing ALL ſorts of malt liquors in the greateſt perfection, from the ſmalleſt to the largeſt quantities.

Alſo inſtructions for choice of barley and hops, and all other ingredients and utenſils uſed in Brewing. Together with the very beſt methods of caſking, cellaring, fining, bottling, curing, and recovering faulty or damaged liquors.

The Whole made eaſy to every capacity, and calculated not only for the uſe of Publicans in general, but private families in particular.

By GEORGE WATKINS,

Who has practiſed Brewing in all its Branches, upwards of thirty years.

III.

Price One Shilling, adorned with a curious frontiſpiece of all the moſt favourite ſinging birds.

THE compleat BIRD FANCYER; or, Bird-fancyer's Recreation. Containing the beſt inſtructions for taking, breeding, feeding and rearing all ſorts of ſong-birds; particularly, Canary birds, nightingales, larks, black-birds, ſterlings, thruſhes, linnets, goldfinches, bullfinches, &c. Together with an account of all their diſtempers, and the beſt methods of curing them. Alſo the ſureſt means of diſtinguiſhing the cock from the hen, and learning them to ſing to the greateſt perfection.

By GEORGE WRIGHT, who has made the rearing birds his diverſion near twenty years.

The lovers of harmony reading this book,
May the moments of pleaſure prolong,
For here we are taught by the feather and look,
To judge of the bird and his ſong.

IV.

Price One Shilling and Six-pence, neatly bound in red.

The POLITE TUTORESS;

OR,

YOUNG LADY's INSTRUCTOR.

Being a ſeries of dialogues between a ſenſible governeſs and ſeveral of her pupils of the firſt rank. In which they are made to think, ſpeak, and act in a manner ſuitable to their reſpective tempers, diſpoſitions, and capacities.

The natural defects of infancy are repreſented in the ſtrongeſt light, and proper rules laid down for correcting them; care being taken to form their minds to virtue, as well as to cultivate their underſtandings.

In this work are included, ſeveral abſtracts from ſcripture, fables, geographical definitions, &c. interſperſed with uſeful reflections, and moral tales for their amuſement. Written in an eaſy ſtile, and perfectly adapted to their tender years.

A very proper ſtudy for all children of faſhion, eſpecially thoſe at Boarding ſchools. The whole being the beſt calculated thing ever yet publiſhed, to make the young reader at once a fine lady and a good woman.

V.

In a neat Pocket Volume, Price 2s. 6d. in Boards.

The ADVENTURES OF A KIDNAPPED ORPHAN.

Our Orphan's Fate, a hapleſs Fate,
Let every Youth deplore;
Condemn'd by baſe inſidious Arts
To quit his native Shore.
Expos'd on foreign Sands he lies,
And yields his lateſt Breath,
Unwept by thoſe unpitying eyes,
That doom'd him firſt to death.

VI.

Price only One Shilling, adorned with a moſt beautiful frontiſpiece, finely engraved,

THE

YOUTH's Pocket-Companion;

OR,

UNIVERSAL PRECEPTOR.

Containing what is abſolutely neceſſary for every young man to know and practiſe, under the following heads, viz.

A compleat grammar of the Engliſh Language, by which a perſon of the meaneſt capacity may preſently underſtand to write, ſpeak, and read, with the greateſt correctneſs and accuracy.

The beſt inſtructions for writing, making pens, &c.

Familiar letters in the common occurrences of life, which is a compleat introduction to an eaſy, uſeful, and elegant ſtile, and which will enable any perſon to write a handſome letter on any ſubject whatſoever.

Arithmetic rendered ſo plain and eaſy, that any perſon may arrive to the greateſt perfection without the help of a maſter.

Forms of receipts, bills, notes of hand, &c.

Rules to be obſerved in the conduct of life, to lead to happineſs and proſperity.

The pocket farrier.

The gardener's directory.

Examples of the moſt neceſſary forms in law, ſuch as wills, indentures, &c. and ſeveral other things, equally uſeful, too numerous to be mentioned in the title page.

By GEORGE WILSON,

Teacher at an Academy in London.

Embrace inſtruction, hold her faſt,
Her treaſures will for ever laſt.

VII.

(Price One Shilling)

Adorned with a moſt curious and uſeful frontiſpiece, repreſenting at one view, in near fifty figures, all the various names of every part of a horſe's body, being the compleateſt, cheapeſt and plaineſt book of the kind ever yet publiſhed.

The Complete HORSE DOCTOR;

OR,

FARRIERY made Plain and Eaſy.

Explaining the beſt methods of curing the ſeveral Diſeaſes to which horſes are ſubject.

Together with a ſuccinct account of the various ſymptoms of their approaching diſorders.

Alſo the beſt manner of taking proper care of them, during the time of their illneſs.

The whole laid down in the moſt plain and intelligible manner, that thoſe who have horſes may manage their own, and cure the diſtempers to which they are ſubject, without the aſſiſtance of a farrier.

With an introduction containing the moſt certain methods of chooſing horſes of all kinds.

Alſo eaſy directions for riding, whereby a perſon from ſmall experience, may become a complete horſeman, as well as a complete farrier. Likewiſe the moſt proper manner of managing a horſe on a journey.

Being the reſult of 37 years practice and experience.

By J. THOMPSON, of Clifton, in Yorkſhire.

VIII.

In a handſome pocket volume, (price 2s. 6d. in boards, or 3s. neatly bound) adorned with a moſt beautiful frontiſpiece finely engraved from an original drawing taken from the life,

CURTAIN LECTURES; or Matrimonial Miſery Diſplay'd. In a ſeries of intereſting Dialogues between married men and their wives, in every ſtation and condition of life.

The ruby fac'd alderman, lawyer and prieſt,
The cuckold, the fool and the ſot;
The ſwaggering blade, who of oaths makes a jeſt,
The old fumbler, the miſer, the cot:
The new-married dame, and the long-wedded wife,
The termagant jade and the ſcold;
Will find that our book is the picture of life,
Where their faults they may clearly behold.
Then buy it all parties, and learn to be wiſe,
When the follies you ſee that from wedlock ariſe.

IX.

(Price only One Shilling)

The LOVER's INSTRUCTOR;

OR,

The Whole ART of COURTSHIP.

Containing, among a very great variety of other curious articles, equally inſtructive and entertaining,

The moſt ingenious letters, written to and from both ſexes, relative to love and courtſhip.

Love epiſtles in verſe, written in an elegant ſtile.

The politeſt perſonal converſation between lovers, &c. &c.

To which is prefixed, a preface, directing each ſex how to make a prudent choice in a partner for life, and ſeveral other curious particulars.

Love's the moſt generous paſſion of the mind,
The ſofteſt refuge innocence can find;
The cordial drop Heav'n in our cup has thrown,
To make the nauſeous draught of life go down.

X.

Price One Shilling, ſewed in marble covers, and adorned with a curious frontiſpiece,

THE GOOD SAMARITAN;

OR,

Complete ENGLISH PHYSICIAN.

Containing obſervations on the moſt frequent diſeaſes of men and women, infants and children; with directions for the management of the ſick; and a collection of the moſt approved receipts for making and preparing cheap, eaſy, ſafe and efficacious medicines, for their recovery. Likewiſe directions concerning bleeding. Delivered in ſo plain and eaſy a manner, that any perſon of tolerable ſagacity, may be his own phyſician, or direct for others with propriety and ſucceſs. By Dr. LOBB, Member of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London, and other eminent practitioners. To which is added, a method of reſtoring to life perſons thought drowned, or any other manner ſuffocated.

XI.

Price only One Shilling and Six-pence, adorned with a beautiful frontiſpiece elegantly engraved,

The Complete Engliſh GARDENER;

OR,

Gardening made perfectly Eaſy.

Containing directions for the proper management of the flower, fruit, and kitchen garden, for every month in the year. The whole laid down in ſo plain and eaſy a manner, that all who are deſirous of managing a garden, may do it effectually, without any other inſtructions whatever. To which is added,

The COMPLETE BEE-MASTER; or, beſt method of managing Bees, as well for profit as pleaſure. Together with the whole art of breeding and rearing fowls, ducks, geeſe, turkies, pigeons, and rabbits. Likewiſe plain inſtructions for deſtroying vermin, particularly ſuch as infeſt houſes, gardens, dairies, barns, bees, poultry, &c.

Alſo rules to judge of the weather, and many other articles equally uſeful, too numerous to inſert in the title page.

By SAMUEL COOKE,

Gardener, at Overton, in Wiltſhire: Who has practiſed gardening, through all its branches, in many Counties, upwards of forty years.

XII.

(Price One Shilling and Six-pence)

The MODERN BOOK-KEEPER;

OR,

Book-keeping made perfectly Eaſy.

Wherein the Theory and Practice of that excellent art is clearly explained, in the manner of real buſineſs, both foreign and domeſtic, according to the moſt approved method.

By WILLIAM SQUIRE,

Maſter of the Academy in Hoxton-Square, and one of the Authors of the New Royal and Univerſal Dictionary of Arts and Sciences, now publiſhing in weekly numbers, Price Six-pence each.

XIII.

(Price only One Shilling)

THE SPOUTER's COMPANION,

OR,

THEATRICAL REMEMBRANCER.

CONTAINING

A ſelect collection of the moſt eſteemed prologues and epilogues, which have been ſpoken by the moſt celebrated performers of both ſexes. Together with variety of curious originals, written on purpoſe for this work. Among which are ſeveral prologues and epilogues, to be ſpoken in the characters of Bloods, Bucks, Choice Spirits, Fribbles, Bravoes, &c. Together with a new prologue on epilogues, and an epilogue on prologues.

To which is added,

THE SPOUTER's MEDLEY:

Containing ſelect parts of the moſt celebrated comedies and tragedies, contraſted in ſuch a manner as to render their aſſemblage extremely diverting to the readers, ſpeakers and hearers.

Ye lovers of Theſpis, a table is ſpread,
To feaſt you in taſte at the fam'd Shakeſpear's head:
Then come and regale on our high-ſeaſon'd book,
Diſh'd out and ſerv'd up by your caterer, Cooke,
Here's humour and wit ready dreſs'd for your eaſe,
So chuſe as you fancy, and ſpout as ye pleaſe.

N. B. This collection contains ſeveral admired prologues not to be found in any work of the kind, particularly BUCKS HAVE AT YE ALL, &c.

XIV.

In a neat pocket volume, price 2s. ſewed, adorned with a humorous frontiſpiece drawn from the life.

The MIDNIGHT SPY;

OR,

A View of the Tranſactions of LONDON and WESTMINSTER.

From the hours of ten in the evening, till five in the morning; exhibiting a great variety of ſcences in high and low life. With the characters of ſome well-known nocturnal adventurers of both ſexes. Alſo, the humours of round houſes, night houſes, bagnios, jelly houſes, gaming tables, routs and other places of midnight reſort. Together with the general and particular deſcription of women of the town.

By the author of the Cheats of London expoſed.

XV.

(Price only One Shilling)

The ſecond edition, with the addition of great variety of made diſhes, &c.

Adorned with a moſt beautiful frontiſpiece, and other uſeful cuts, (being the moſt plain and eaſy book of the kind ever yet publiſhed,)

The Complete ENGLISH COOK;

OR,

PRUDENT HOUSEWIFE.

Being an entire new collection of the moſt genteel, yet leaſt expenſive receipts in every branch of cookery and good houſewifery, viz.

Roaſting, Boiling, Stewing, Ragoos, Soups, Sauces, Fricaſeys, Pies, Tarts, Puddings, Potting, Cheeſe-cakes, Cuſtards, Jellies, Candying, Collaring, Pickling, Preſerving, Made Wines, &c.

Together with the art of marketing, and directions for placing diſhes on tables for entertainments, and and many other things equally neceſſary. The whole made eaſy to the meaneſt capacity, and far more uſeful to young beginners than any book of the kind extant.

By CATHARINE BROOKS, of Red Lion Street.

To which is added, the Phyſical Doctor; being near two hundred ſafe and certain receipts for the cure of moſt diſorders incident to the human body.

Alſo the whole art of clear ſtarching, ironing, &c.

XVI.

Price only One Shilling (adorned with ſix curious copper-plate cuts beautifully engraved from original deſigns, which alone are worth the price of the book)

The Cheats of LONDON Expoſed;

OR, THE

TRICKS of the TOWN

Laid Open to BOTH SEXES.

Being a clear diſcovery of all the various frauds and villanies that are daily practiſed in that great city. Among many others, are the following, viz. Highwaymen, or Scamps, Sharpers, Gamblers, Kidnappers, Waggon-hunters, Money-droppers, Duffers, Setters, Pretended Friends, Mock Auctions, Regiſter Offices, Quacks, Bullies, Bawds, Whores, Pimps, Jilts, Goſſips, and Fortune-tellers. The whole laid down in ſo plain and eaſy a manner, as to enable the moſt innocent country people to be completely on their guard how to avoid the baſe villanies of ſuch vile and abandoned wretches, who live by robbing and ruining the young and innocent of both ſexes. Together with general remarks on the preſent ſtate and condition of the town, interſperſed with uſeful admonitions to perſons of all ages and conditions, the obſervation of which may prevent the deſtruction of thouſands of both ſexes.

By the Author of the MIDNIGHT SPY.

Herein are ſhewn the various feats,
Of Whores and Rogues, and other Cheats;
Here Youth are taught thoſe ſnares to ſhun,
By which too many are undone.

XVII.

In a handſome pocket volume, (Price 2s. 6d. ſew'd, or 3s. neatly bound) adorned with a curious frontiſpiece, from an original painting repreſenting the four great dangers,

THE

Companion for the FIRE SIDE;

OR,

Winter Evening's Amuſement.

Being a valuable and curious collection of amuſing and inſtructive ſtories, tales, fables, allegories, hiſtorical facts, eaſtern tales, novels, remarkable events and ſingular occurrences. Selected from the moſt celebrated writers in ſeveral languages, many of which never appeared in print before.

To paſs the dull evening in pleaſure away,
And laugh at the cares of mank nd;
Accept of a chearful companion to day,
To mirth and amuſement inclin'd.
The contents of our volume will amply repay
The expence that the purchaſe has coſt,
And none but a blockhead will ſeriouſly ſay,
That the time or his money was loſt.

XVIII.

An ENTIRE ORIGINAL WORK.

Price only Two Shillings neatly bound, (adorned with a beautiful emblematical frontiſpiece, finely engraved from an original drawing)

The Univerſal LETTER-WRITER;

OR,

New Art of Polite Correſpondence.

Containing a courſe of INTERESTING ORIGINAL LETTERS on the moſt important, inſtructive, and entertaining ſubjects, which may ſerve as copies for inditing letters on the various occurrences in life.

Parti-

Particularly on advice, affection, affluence, benevolence, buſineſs, children to parents, compliments, condolence, courtſhip, diligence, education, fidelity, folly, friendſhip, generoſity, happineſs, hiſtory, humanity, humour, induſtry, juſtice, love, marriage, maſters to ſervants, modeſty, morality, œconomy, parents to children, paternal affection, piety, pleaſure, prodigality, prudence, religion, retirement, ſervants to maſters, trade, virtue, wit, &c.

To which is added,

The COMPLETE PETITIONER.

Containing great variety of Petitions on various ſubjects, from perſons in low or middling ſtates of life, to thoſe in higher ſtations; ſuited to all the different occaſions in life.

Alſo a new, plain and eaſy GRAMMAR of the Engliſh language, and directions for addreſſing perſons of all ranks, either in writing or diſcourſe.

Likewiſe forms of Letters of Licence, Bonds, Indentures, Wills and Powers, Letters of Attorney, &c. as they are now executed by gentlemen of diſtinguiſhed abilities in the law.

20 MR 51

Whoever wou'd in terms polite addreſs,
May here from precedent his thoughts expreſs:
Petition, urge, demand, reflect, deſire,
As reaſon, and occaſion, may require.

By the Rev. THOMAS COOKE, A. B.

☞ Be careful to aſk for COOKE's Univerſal Letter Writer.

‡‡‡ The public are intreated to obſerve that this work will ſerve for inditing letters on all occaſions, and thoſe perſons who are poſſeſſed of other books of a like kind, will make a valuable addition thereto by the purchaſe of this New One. It being entirely original, as not a ſingle letter is copied from any book whatever.